Join us for:

— The —

Salton Sea Tour

Saturday, January 21, 2017

Enjoy a 2-mile guided hike with Sonny Bono Salton Sea Wildlife Refuge (SBSSWR) staff and other groups to discuss planning issues including habitat, air quality, renewable energy, Salton Sea restoration projects, etc. After the tour, a mixer with Imperial Valley Planners will be held at the Inferno restaurant in Downtown Brawley.

San Diego to Imperial County Logistics/Agenda

730am - 8am: Meet at Rick Engineering parking lot at 5620 Friars Road, San Diego, CA 92110

8am - 1030am: Travel by shuttle bus to Salton Sea Refuge Visitor’s Center. Brunch included.

1030am - 1230pm: Salton Sea Tour led by Tom Anderson - Meet at Sonny Bono Salton Sea Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center

1230pm - 1pm: Discussion with Luis Olmedo, Executive Director from the Comite Civic Del Valle - a local environmental justice advocacy group located in Brawley.

1pm - 130pm: Travel from Visitor Center to Inferno in Brawley, CA

130pm - 330pm: Inferno Mixer / Appetizers and Drinks Provided

San Diego Point of Contact
Marcus Bush: 619-632-7884

Imperial County Logistics/Agenda

9am - 930am: Meet at El Centro City Hall south parking lot at 1275 W. Main Street, El Centro

930 - 1030am: Travel by shuttle bus to Salton Sea Refuge Visitor’s Center. Brunch included.

1030am - 1230pm: Salton Sea Tour led by Tom Anderson - Meet at Sonny Bono Salton Sea Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center

1230pm - 1pm: Discussion with Luis Olmedo, Executive Director from the Comite Civic Del Valle - a local environmental justice advocacy group located in Brawley.

1pm - 130pm: Travel from Visitor Center to Inferno in Brawley, CA

130pm - 330pm: Inferno Mixer / Appetizers and Drinks Provided

Imperial Point of Contact
Angel Hernandez: 760-540-1050

330pm - 6pm: Travel to San Diego by Shuttle Bus
Watch documentary “Plagues & Pleasures on the Salton Sea”

330pm - 4pm: Return travel to El Centro City Hall